

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I urge the FCC and Congress to take a stand for democracy, to preserve and strengthen the rules that limit media consolidation, and to promote public access to media.

Media giants and conglomerates will only stifle the voice of free speech. We must preserve the first amendment! It's time for a real debate.
